Acting Chief of Station, Karlsruhe

Possible Czech Agents in Amson

Name DEER, Eduard POLANEK, Jakob GREZUR

Ref: WOLA-5652

1. Karlsruhe files had no traces on Hans DEER and Eduard POLANEK.

2. Jakob GREZUR or GREZUR is mentioned in a number of references, some of which are given below:

a. CXL-448, dated 9 December 1949, states:-

"A certain Orthead GREZUR, now at Ludwigsburg, is a young and very intelligent man, who is supposedly a Czech from Pilsen and who has command of several languages. He is responsible for several articles which have been published in the German press about persons who were close to the late President Beneš, persons whom he obviously dislikes. The articles usually contain some references to General FICHALA, but the local followers of FICHALA do not wish to have anything to do with GREZUR and have even insulted him. It is believed that the authors of the articles are Sudeten Germans and that GREZUR lends his pseudonym, JAKUB or JAKUB. It appears that he is in touch with some intelligence agency (probably de GAULLE) and that he has certain special connections with the Hapsburgs. It is possible also that all of the articles are merely a creation of his own mind. In any event, he is dangerous to our good cause."

(S.L.-8-54)

b. CXL-448, dated 22 January 1950, gave the following information on Orthead GREZUR (identical with Jakob GREZUR):

(1) He is identical with person using various names (Dr. Otakar GREZUR, Dr. Václav GREZUR, Jack GREZUR, etc.) but his real name appears to be Jakob GREZUR, under which his DP Card (536607) was issued. He was born 9 June 1924.

(2) According to his statement, subject (GREZUR) was a Major in England during the war. He is, unknown however, to anybody from there. He asserts further that he was an officer employed with the Czechoslovak Military Mission in Germany after the war. He does not conceal the fact that he is an adherent of General PRCHALA's movement, and a fascist. He likes to talk big about himself and about his alleged military activities in Greece. There is some doubt that he is a Doctor of Law, as he pretends.

(3) In 1948 he came to the Czech DP Camp in Ludwigsburg. He refused, however, to live in this camp, asserting that it would not be convenient enough for him. He lived for some time in the hotel "Stuttgarter Tor" in Ludwigsburg.

(4) In Sept. 1949, he visited nearly every day all Czech DP camps in Ludwigsburg, where he organized an intelligence group, members of which might be either Czech citizens or Sudeten Germans. According to his own statement, subject considered as reliable for this service only adherents of the former VLAJKA organization (a fascist group collaborating with the Germans during the occupation of CSR) and followers of STRIDNY and PRCHALA. He was also interested in the number of political refugees coming from CSR into these camps, those in cooperation with the Americans, etc.

(5) Subject visited several times Magdalena ASARKOVA, born 14 July 1921 in Kosice (Slovakia), a Slovak national, now resident of Jagodhof DP Camp, Ludwigsburg. Her husband is a professor at the Commercial College, living in Bratislava. ASARKOVA is watched because her activity is suspicious.

(6) Subject met one VIKTORNY in the Jagodhof DP Camp at the end of Sept. 1949. They had a fight and subject was injured. The reason for this controversy was that VIKTORNY had published several tendentious articles about PRCHALA in German and French newspapers. He was charged with taking pains to break up PRCHALA's movement. Subject actually is in close touch with the leading persons of Sudeten German circles and without doubt has some connection with articles published in the German press favouring Sudeten Germans.

(7) Subject had a controversy with the central office of PRCHALA's movement in Germany (Munich), which is represented especially by Vladimir PRCHALSKY and his secretary. On 25 Oct. 1949, VIKTORNY was excluded from the PRCHALA group and charged with being in contact with one JIM STORAK, official at the Czech Consulate in Munich, and because of his opposition to PRCHALSKY. Subject is now allegedly engaged in smuggling needles into CSR.

(8) VIKTORNY is in contact with suspicious persons and asserts that he is a monarchist and that he intends to accommodate PRCHALA's political program to the monarchial conception of Otto HAPSHOFER, with whom he is also in contact. VIKTORNY is trying to get in touch with DE GAULLE and is reported to have connections with the Vlatens; with one JIM MAIER, CP deputy for Karlsruhe; and with Polish and Ukrainian nationalist circles in Germany. He tries to win young women for unknown tasks. Subject is constantly moving.
